

Victorian RSL Billiards & Snooker Association

DRESS CODE

Rule 6.2 of the Association's Rules states:

"All players and visiting supporters shall adhere to the current general dress standards for RSL clubs at all times during representative play, irrespective of the actual venue at which a match takes place. Any player nominated on the match score sheet shall not be permitted to take part in competitive play whilst contravening these dress standards. In any situation where it is considered that a player does not meet these dress standards, Team captains shall include an appropriate notation outlining the circumstances on the score sheet. "
