

The answer is that striking two balls simultaneously other than two reds, or a free ball and the ball on, Sec.3 Rule 6. is a foul. As full central ball contact was available to the striker and given that the warning was delivered to him it means that the frame must be awarded by the referee because of the three 'miss' calls rule Sec.3 Rule 14 d) i. & ii.